

Property Tax Relief Programs

The filing period for Property Tax Exemptions is between the first business day in January and March 1 of each calendar year.

Property Tax Exemption for Widows and Widowers: This exempts all or a portion of the total Net Assessed Value. Limited to permanent Arizona residents, income, total assessment limits, spouse must have been an Arizona resident, etc.

Property Tax Exemption for Disabled Persons: This exempts all or a portion of the total Net Assessed Value. Limited to permanent Arizona residents, income, total assessment limits, medical certificate, etc.

Non-Profit Organization Exemption: Exempts all or a portion of the total Net Assessed Value, must show documents of Federal and State non-profit status for review, must have ownership of property to be exempt. Exemption will be determined by primary usage of the property.

Religious Organization Exemption: Exempts all or a portion of the total Net Assessed Value, must show documents of Federal and State non-profit status for review, must have ownership of property to be exempt. Exemption will be determined by primary usage of the property.

Additional Tax Relief Programs:

Senior Property Valuation Protection Option: Freezes the Full Cash Value for the next 3 years, contingent upon factors that may change the property status or ownership. Limited to permanent Arizona residents, 65 or over of age, income limit, must have property ownership, etc.

Property Tax Deferral: The total tax amount is set aside, contingent upon factors that may change the property status or ownership. Limited to 70 or over of age, residency, income, requires consent of all ownership parties, property status limitations apply.

For application, forms, and additional information, contact the La Paz County Assessor's Office at 1112 Joshua Avenue, Suite 204, Parker, Arizona 85344, Phone: 928-669-6165,